

“And A Child Shall Lead Us” 2019 - 2020

A Spiritual Journey For Mothers of Individuals with Disabilities

Come and be nourished with prayer, food and friendship.
Refreshments Provided

Where:

St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church,
Parish Life Center
15 North Washington Avenue
Bergenfield, NJ

TIME: 7:30 PM to 9:00 PM unless noted below

- October 9: Welcome Back – Summer is Over
- November 13: It's Good To Be Together
- December 11: Advent Mass, Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe 7:15 chapel upstairs in Parish Life Center
- March 11: Supported Employment Information Night – Open Mtg
Stay tuned, more information to follow.
- April 8: Stations of the Cross 7:15 chapel upstairs in Parish Life Center
- May 13: May Crowning Liturgy 7:15 chapel upstairs in Parish Life Center

For more information contact: St. John's Religious Education Office at 201-384-3601 or Anne Masters, Pastoral Ministry with Persons with Disabilities at the email/phone below.

The group is supported by the parish of St. John the Evangelist Church, Bergenfield and Pastoral Ministry with Persons with Disabilities for the Archdiocese of Newark. The group has evolved from the model developed by Cherie Castellano MA, CSW, LPC, AAETS, a psychologist and mother of a child with an autism spectrum disorder and Sr. Rie Crowley, SJ, MA of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, Roseland.

Anne.Masters@rcan.org

973-497-4309

www.rcan.org/disabilities

